THE FIRST THANKSGIVING - 11.24.60

When Titans' founder Harry Wismer announced the 1960 schedule, he trumpeted the Thanksgiving Day game as an annual fixture to the AFL landscape. The victory for the Titans that first Thanksgiving Day was the first of three straight for the franchise, which in becoming the Jets in 1963 gave up the traditional spot on the calendar. The Jets have only appeared twice since on Turkey Day, losing to the Lions in 1972 and 1985. Now, 47 years later, New York and Dallas renew the Thanksgiving Day rivalry that almost was.

TITANS 41, TEXANS 35 (as described by the legendary Dick Young in the New York Daily News)

"A piping-hot Turkey Day football feast, stuffed with 76 juicy points, whetted the appetites of 14,344 late diners at the Polo Grounds, as the Titans outgorged the Dallas Texans, 41-35...Most responsible for the satisfying PG finale was Al Dorow, the hairless wower. He fired the ball 301 yards via 21 completions in 33 heaves - mostly to Don Maynard and Art Powell, the most sure-handed duo in the loop...It seemed, with the fourth period well under way, that the Titans had a breeze. Maynard's incredible pass-clutching, with defenders clinging to his thin neck, had moved New York ahead, 34-13. Then the Texans came on with a rush as big as all Alaska. They scored three TDs within a space of seven minutes - and in between their second and third scores, the Titans also put one across. That's the type of game it was."
