NEW YORK JETS game tickets are revocable licenses. The New York Jets generally offer season ticket holders who have complied with all of the terms and conditions of their season tickets, including all payment terms and all codes of conduct applicable to stadium conduct, the opportunity to renew their season tickets. The New York Jets reserve the right to refuse to approve any proposed transfer of a season ticket account in its sole discretion. No transfer may be made for any payment or other consideration. Any transfer made without the approval of the New York Jets or in violation of the preceding sentence shall be void and may result in the revocation of the season ticket account.

Season ticket transfers between nuclear family members will retain their original seniority. Only transfer of entire accounts, all seats and associated events, to family members will retain seniority.

By requesting this transfer the current account holder acknowledges that she/he will have no rights with respect to the account once the transfer has been approved and processed.

Personal Seat Licenses in the new stadium will be transferable after 2011 and only once a year per the terms of the personal seat license agreement. Before 2011, PSLs are transferable only to nuclear family members. Seats in the upper level of the new stadium will not have a PSL and WILL NOT be transferable.

By their signatures below both the current and new account holders agree to the terms of the preceding two paragraphs and represent that they have not violated any of those terms.
